Centennial BANK Introduces New Market President in Tulia

TULIA, TX | August 7, 2018 – Regional President Matt Kelley is proud to announce the recent hiring of Chris Mahaney as Senior Vice President and Tulia Market President. With a total of thirteen years of experience within the financial industry, Chris will lead banking and lending operations at Centennial BANK's Tulia location.

"I could not be more pleased to have someone of Chris's caliber rejoin our team," said Regional Vice President Matt Kelley. "He brings years of banking and leadership experience to Centennial and I am excited to see the positive impact that Chris will have not only on Centennial BANK but on the Tulia community."

Born and raised in Tulia, Mahaney earned his Bachelor's degree from West Texas A&M University and is a graduate from the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking, class of 2014. Over his career Mahaney has amassed a vast knowledge in retail banking, lending, and leadership through his roles at West Texas banking institutions. In fact, Mahaney previously served as Vice President of Lending with Centennial BANK for eight years before pursuing other opportunities. An active member of the community, Chris has served as a President of the Plainview Country Club, a board member of the Wee Care Day Care Center, and served on the board of the Hale County Appraisal Review Board. When at home, Chris enjoys spending time with his wife Carla and two children, Kyler (12) and Pavin (11).

Chris Mahaney commented, "I am incredibly pleased to be rejoining the Centennial BANK team. Centennial BANK is a dedicated community partner that continually reinvests in and reinvigorates our West Texas communities. I am excited to be rejoining the bank and it is a pleasure to be back in my hometown of Tulia."
