Centennial BANK Announces New Vice President of Lending in Boerne

BOERNE, TX | June 18, 2018 – Boerne Market President Christopher Salinas announces the hiring of Rex Zamponi as Vice President of Lending. Zamponi will be responsible for managing existing banking relationships and facilitating growth of the bank’s loan portfolio in Boerne.

“It is truly an honor to have someone of Rex’s caliber join Centennial BANK,” said Salinas. “Rex offers a wealth of knowledge in banking and brings a proven track record of success in the financial services industry spanning 14 years to Centennial BANK. He is well-respected in the San Antonio area and will serve as a great compliment to our Boerne team.”

Originally from Harlingen, Texas, Zamponi studied at University of Texas at Austin and will be graduating with his Masters of Business Administration degree from Schreiner University in Kerrville this August. He worked as an analyst and commercial loan officer at respected financial institutions in both the Rio Grande Valley and San Antonio before moving to the area. A US Army Veteran of six years, Rex also holds his license as a Texas Real Estate Broker as well as a Texas Senior Property Tax Consultant and has spent the last eight years as an Industrial Senior Property Tax Consultant. He and his wife Amy have been married for 15 years and have a 14-year-old daughter Ashley.

When asked about his move to Centennial BANK, Zamponi stated, “My move to the Boerne community and to Centennial BANK has been an exciting one. I am looking forward to getting involved in local civic and non-profit organizations. I’m grateful for this opportunity and proud to be a part of Centennial BANK.”

Zamponi is a member of the Community Bible Church in San Antonio and also works as an Advisory Board Member for the Boerne YMCA. In his free time, Zamponi enjoys traveling with his family, mountain biking, hiking, and camping.
